OUR TOWN

The editor has been away from the mill of events for the past ten days. Went to the old home in Karnes county where the spurs of riders still jangle on the sidewalks of the cow towns. Many changes have been wrought in the more than twenty years since we left the old farm and ranch. Stood again on the steps of the old home where in the days of long ago our imagination was first kindled for the world beyond. Heard again the subdued tinkle of far off cow bells and the rustle of soft winds across the broad spaces. Now back at the old post to take up the cross of service.

Action of the state executive committee for the Democrats in passing a resolution declaring the pledge applies to national as well as state nominees gives an official, intelligent interpretation such as the majority of the electorate desire. Undoubtedly there can be no division of loyalty as to state and national tickets if the spirit of the pledge is to be observed. Unfortunately the writing of statutes often finds the omission of clarity as well as good and sufficient English. The resolution which declares for certification to all county chairmen declares that it is the view of the state committee that unless a voter will support the nominees of the national party he is in effect violating the pledge he takes in the primary election. County committees as well as election managers now have good authority on which to exercise a strict policy of party loyalty.

Tom Love has quit the run off race for lieutenant governor. He would make it appear that the action of the state committee, although certifying his name, had given authority in the various counties for executive committees to keep his name off the ballot, and thereby making his election doubtful. Such is not true. The loyal democrats of Texas made his election improbable and in the run off would have given Barry Miller the largest majority ever given a candidate in Texas. A test seemed certain in this race whether the Texas democrats would remain loyal. Bolting voters make bolting candidates. If Love had remained in the race it would have been the first direct test of the temper of the people of Texas toward Governor Smith, the Democratic nominee for President.

John E. Cook, editor of the Rockdale Reporter was in Cameron Wednesday and while here had a round of golf on the links of the Cameron Country Club. Mr. Cooke prints one of Texas' greatest weekly newspapers in the Regal City and has served his fraternity and his state well. We congratulate our esteemed friend on his accession to golf, an estate not yet reached by this journalist.

The run off primary election on August 25 is a nimportant day for the electorate of Texas. Choices for nomination are to be made in a number of important offices, including that of United States Senator. There is always danger of intesest decline in the run off primary and the voters are urged to go to the polls and cast a ballot. The year 1928 will be an exacting political exercise for the electorate with three major elections. Because choices are nearly always made in the July primary there is a lessening of interest in the run off. Readers of this paper and voters in Milam county are respectfully urged to go to the polls on Saturday, August 25 and vote. In November is the general election and this is a presidential year. Let's make liberal use of the franchise and vote for the best interest of the party and support the nominees of the Houston convention.

Witness the inevitable strange bedfellow in politics. Now former governor James E. Ferguson comes out strong for Mayfield as the choice he takes between two men he declares unfit for the high office of United States Senator. Supporters of Conally are making much capital of this situation while the supporters of the Mayfield cause believe that it means votes. That Governor Ferguson will be able to deliver a large number of votes to Mayfield goes without saying, but it is extremely improbable that the rank and file of his supporters will agree with him in his support of Mayfield. No matter what may be said about this unusual spectacle the fact remains that it is no more strange that Jim Ferguson should support Mayfield than for George Purl to hold the standard of Texas Democracy in the national convention with Governor Moody as the chairman of the delegation.

A careful analysis of the Ferguson statement in support of Mayfield will show that the former governor basis his position on the merits of the candidates on the Klan issue. Conally has made no anti-klan speeches prior to his race for the senate and his record on this question is not what could be said of many other Texas leaders. However, Mayfield went to the Senate a Klansman and up to this time has never repudiated that position. There can be no question about the duty of democrats who believe secret government is wrong. They should overlook Conally's sparse record and vote for him. If he is now oppsed to the Klan we are willing to accept his position and give him our vote.

BODY OF T. D. LINDSEY IS SENT TO ARKANSAS

PIONEER RESIDENT HERE DIES AFTER PNEUMONIA ATTACK SUNDAY

T. D. Lindsey, age 79, died Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of his son, the late D. L. Lindsey. Mr. Lindsey had been ill for a period of two weeks, succombing to pneumonia.

Ballots Ready By Monday; Delay Is Result of Bad Law

Ballots for the run off primary election on August 25 will be ready by Monday according to Chairman White of the executive committee. The delay in printing the ballots is due to a defective statute. The chairman received official certification of names on Wednesday morning from the state committee and no time was available to prepare the ballots in time for absentee voting on the same date.

Fundamental changes must be made in the statute as to dates for the meeting of committees in order to prepare ballots for absentee voting in time prescribed by the statute.

The name of Thomas B. Love having been certified to the chairman of the committee for a place on the ballot and at the request of Lieut. Gov. Barry Miller, his name will appear on the ballot, although he has withdrawn from the race. The committee has no official notice to omit the name and in as much as the name of Governor Miller will go on the ballot, that of his opponent will appear aso.

KNIFE WOUNDS FATAL TO AUBREY BATEY, 23

STEP FATHER IN LAW HELD AFTER FATAL CUTTING AT CHURCH

Aubrey E. Batey, 23, was cut to death at the Sand Grove church on Sunday night, August 5.

Neal Baggett, step father in law of the dead youth, is now under bond of $5000 and charged with murder. At first he was held under $500 bond and later after the death of Batey was re-arrested and held under higher bond to await the September grand jury.

The trouble is said to have started over a life insurance policy collected by Mrs. Batey and her sister. Funeral expenses incurred at the death of the mother were paid by Baggett, it is said and he claimed that a portion of the money should have been diverted to that expense.

The Rockdale Reporter says that it is reported that Batey was called from the church house at Sand Grove where religious services were being held and the stabbing occured on the steps. The young man is said to have been completely disemboweled.

Batey died in the Cameron Hospital Monday night after having been brought here for treatment Sunday night.

Error Found Gives Conally More Votes

An error discovered in the returns from Buckholts gives Tom Conally 143 more votes in Milam county and takes a corresponding number from Mayfield. The official table as published in this paper two weeks ago gave Mayfield 177 votes at the Buckholts box. The correct result is as follows: Cunningham 21, McLemore 8 Owsley 78, Blanton 19, Conally 197, Mayfield 54. The change gives Conally 2301 votes in Milam County.

Contentment

A genuine Christian is content not because of the circumstances that surround him, but very often in spite of the circumstances of his life. Help me, Lord, to remember every day that I spend in this world of ups and downs that it is not what happens around me but what happens within me that is of prime importance. It makes no great difference whether I am in the open field or in a dark room I am at liberty. A palace may be a prison to an enslaved soul. A prison may be a palace to one of God's free men. I will not fret over myphysical or mental limitations, though I may recognize these. I will rejoice in my free spirit. Without sight, or hearing or the sense of smell, or taste or touch a man may commune with God. No power on earth can prevent the flight of the soul. Nothing can separate us from the love of God. Immortality is mine. No man can take my life nor rob me of the joy of living. I am content.

Mr. Mayfield's "Seruices" To Farm Relief

Tom Connally puts the correct valuation upon the "services" of Senator Mayfield in supporting the McNary-Haugen bill when he says that the Texas Senator along with those others who supported the bill prevented any farm relief legislation in the last two sessions of Congress.

The McNary-Haugen bill, with its equalization fee, was an impossibility for two reasons. One of them was that the equalization fee is so obviously unconstitutional that it is puerile to say that "the courts should be allowed to decide" this point. The other reason is that even if the constitutional objection could be overcome, the equalization fee would be so unacceptable to American farmers that there would be widespread and general revolt against it.

There are very good grounds for believing that most of the Senators and Congressmen who voted for the McNary-Haugen bill in the last session of Congress, realized these insuperable objections to that bill. The voting came just before the national nominating conventions and on the eve of a national political campaign when Congressmen and Senators were to seek a return to their seats. Congress had done comparatively little to meet the demand for farm relief. It seemed politically expedient to rush through something to which Senators and Congressmen could point when their farmer constituents asked embarrassing questions.

The McNary-Haugen bill had behind it a determined bloc of Middle Western support, consisting mostly of salaried managers of farm bureau organizations and co-operatives. Nothing but the McNary-Haugen bill would satisfy these men, and since many Senators and Congressmen were seeking less actual farm relief legislation tha nsome thing to tell the farmers, they decided that a vote for the McNary-Haugen bill was as good as any, especially since it was evident that the bill would never become a law. For political purposes and with a desire to throw dust in the eyes of the farmers till election day was over they enacted the McNary-Haugen bill in the comfortable certitude that the President would veto it and that no harm would be done.

But there was harm done, although it was not done by the enactment of the McNary Haugen bill. Through feisting upon the farmers a fake and futile bit of legislation, the passage of legislation which woud give the farmers relief was prevented and postponed. Congress' obsession with the McNary-Haugen bill prevented consideration by that body of a number of proposals for farm relief, among which might have been found the remedies sought and badly needed by American agriculture. No man was able to get a hearing before Congress with a farm relief proposal. It was the McNary-Haugen bill or nothing, with the corn belt bloc leaders and with those Congressmen and Senators who had greater concern in catching votes this Fall than they had in the genuine relief of agriculture from its underserved depression.

Most of the Congressmen and Senators, now that the campaign is on and the blasts of discussion have revealed the fallaciousness of farm relief by such methods as that of the McNary-Haugen bill, have repudiated their misguided votes for that measure. The bill is specially eschewed by the platforms of both parties, and repudiated by the candidates of both parties on the nationa tickets. Even the authors of the bill have abandoned the equalization fee, which was its principal provision and without which the bill is nothing more than a federal indorsement of the work of farm co-operatives. Only in Texas is there found a Senator, Mr. Mayfield, who yet holds to the discredited equalization fee.

When Congress meets again there will be a different spirit toward agriculture's problems. The various proposals which were refused a hearing when both Houses were obsessed with the McNary-Haugen bill will be brought forward again. Congressmen and Senators will go into consideration of the problem with open minds and it is very likely that real constructive legislation will be forthcoming.

Texas ought to have in the Senate a man with an open mind, whose open mindedness was demonstrated when he refused to succumb to the political expediency of goldbricking the farmers through the McNary-Haugen bill in order to keep them fooled till the election was over.

That man is Tom Connally, who, while other Legislators in Washington were voting blindly for the discredited McNary-Haugen bill and its unconstitutional equalization fee, knowing that the bill would never become a law, was casting about for legislation that would be constitutional and would be helpful to the farmer.

A man who still contends that the equalization fee, which would place a tax on every producer of a bale of cotton, is the only thing that Congress should consider in the way of farm relief, would be terribly out of place in the next Congress— Fort Worth Star Telegram.

WHAT WE THINK

By FANK DIXON

It is not at all difficult to tell what a vain person is thinking about.

The only fellow who looks down in the mouth when he has a job is the dentist.

In the coming campaign, each party will have a big job. That's the headline I noticed in one of our metropolitan papers. My idea is that that joo will be getting more votes than the other.

I was telling a friend of mine the other day about the difficuty I had in spelling words that ended in 'ei' and "ie". He said, "Wel, I have a splendid remedy for that. It always works too, I've used it for years and never been let down yet." Of course I was very anxious to get this rule, so here is what he told me. "The rule is this—write your 'i" and "e" exactly alike. Be sure and put your dot exectly between the pair of them.

This is th 300th anniversary year of the death of Cotton Mather who invented cotton. I have an idea that it might be more interesting to some folks to know the anniversary of Eli Whitney who invented Gin.

I noticed this little want ad "Gentleman—thirty—luxuriously inclined—finances temporarily strained ,undertake particularly anything embodying substantial financial remuneration. Address——." Personal Classified. No use for that man to use a blind ad. We know that guy—his name is Legion.

I note where the people of Doorn in gratitude to the ex-Kaiser for his gift to the city, have raised a fund and presented him with an ornamental gate to his estate. Evidently giving him the gate doesn't mean the same in Holland as it does here.

You often hear it said that people went to the extreme in the olden days. But as I recall the past, extremes were not so extreme in those olden, olden days.

Most husbands want wives to save money, yet they grumble when the lady folks want to buy a bargain.

No doubt many married women work because they find that the easiest way to get money without a lot of discussion.

I guess everybody has his side. Mine is that I can't sympathize with a woman who has lost a diamond valued at more than the mortgage on my farm.

I still maintain that matrimony destroys many delightful engagements.

Some wives are almost as helpless when the can opener is lost as the husbands are when the bottle capper is stolen.

They say that oysters produce sixteen million tiny egs. It's a darn good thing they're tiny—if they were the size of hen eggs, the oyster wouldn't have time to produce so many.

There's a grand old word that we used to see connected up with homes and people. Now it's only hooked up with cows. That word is "contented."

I note where Senator Helfin fears that his death will come about by assassination. My guess is that it will be apoplexy or asphyxiation.

I've been wondering about how much C. C. Pyles's tire bill was, while he was running the bunion derby.

Most generally when a woman hears herself described as being handsome, she immediately begins to diet or take reducing exercises.

Likewise, the easiest way to flatter an old married man is to tell him he doesn't look like it.

1900 Electric Stoves Sold U. S. Army

One thousand nine hundred eectric ranges will replace those using other types of fuel in officers' quarters throughout the United States army. The purchase of the battery of electric ranges has recently been made by Major General B. F. Cheatam, Quartermaster General.

Madison Barracks and Fort Totten, New York and Fort Hancock, New Jersey, are among the posts where officers' dwellings will be equipped with the new ranges. These are all of the most recent design and are equipped with automatic heat regulators.

It is estimated that about half a million homes in the United States are now using electric ranges and that additional ranges are being installed throughout the country at a rate of about 100,000 a year.

County Fairs in Texas

Burnet County was the first in Texas to hold its fair this year. The attendance ranged from 3,000 to 6000 a day, and it was estimated that more than half the people of the county saw the creditable exhibits that were made from all parts of the county. Farms, gardens, orchards, gave of their best to the show. Neighbors vied with each other for prizes in exhibiting cattle, sheep, goats, hogs turkeys and chickens of the finest strains. Thoroughbred horses from Burnet and neighboring counties raced for premiums more prized by their owners for the sake of winning than for the amounts. The week at the fair was a "short course" in the study of the best things produced in country and town. It brought people together to discuss their successes and their failures and to profit by interchange of experiences. Old ties of friendship were renewed; new acqutantances were formed; the recreation spirit prevailed.

Some time during the summer or fall most of the counties of Texas will hold similar fairs. County fairs are pretty much all alike yet some are successful and some are failures. It might be well for other fair directors to make a study of the Bertram fair as a typical success. Success with county fairs does not "just happen;" it comes from right management and hard work. Burnet county's fair may not have been as large as some, but the people who attended it were glad they did and are a bit prouder of their county fo rthe showing that was made. The fair that pleases the home people is a success.

Building and Loan Companies

Texas has many strong, substantial building and loan associations, in which thousands of Texans are financially interested. These associations have collected vast sums from the people in the form of stocks and bonds and in turn have loaned these sums where they have done great good in the building up of the State. The building and loan companies have become hardly second to the banks in the volume of their financial transactions and in the number of people who have invested in and been aided by them.

These companies are under the supervision of the State Department of Banking and need just as close inspection as the banks. This department has been unable to give this supervision because of lack of funds with which to pay examiners. It is to the credit of the associations that they now propose to co-operate in assessing themselves to raise a fund to finance their examinations. This will result in greater confidence and in the elimination of any associations whose practices may be irregular and whose management may be lax. Investors and borrowers alike need this protection and will welcome it.

Fertilizer Use Increases

Texas has doubled its use of commercial fertilizers in the last year. In 1928 137,657 tons of the commercial product was bought. Texas farmers also use more fertilization from their own farms, much that was formerly wasted now being used in a way to bring increased farm production. A pound of fertilizer is worth about 2 cents, but will return in increased crop yields about three-fourths of a pound of seed cotton worth from 5 to 7 cents.

It is stated by the chemistry division of the A. & M. College that East Texas alone could use 750,000 tons of fertilizer annually to advantage. To make money farmers should practice economical production, and that production is cheapest that brings largest returns from the acreage planted.

Rotan's Celebration

It is not often that a town can have such a double jubilee as that which Rotan recently held. Velebrating the advent of gas o rthe completion of a new water system incommon in Texas but few towns have two at the same time. Rotan is the exception. The gas will give plenty of cheap fuel, for about all West Texas is now a gas field. Fresh water from Camp Springs has been turned into the mains to replace that nasty gypsum water that you remember if you have ever been in Rotan. No wonder that "The whole town was thrown open for a celebration, with practically every method and manner of jubilee and public demonstration of a people who were in a spirit to celebrate."

Airplane Factories

The increased use of airplanes is shown in the statement that Dallas is now after two airplane factories. Airplanes are no longer a novelty and will soon be about as common as automobiles. They are now as safe. When we read of airplane disasters, we must remember that every airplane accident of any moment is a matter of national news and is published in all the papers. Only local automobile accidents get into the local press, for such things are no onger news. The air will be the ocean of future travel and commerce.

Paving the Gaps

While every county that fails to get an appropriation from the State Highway Commission is inclined to criticise that body and some of the criticisms may be merited, those who travel the State Highways are forced to commend the present policy of the commission in giving first attention to the closing of gaps in the highways already built. Like a chain, a highway is no better than its worst link.

Farming's Greatest Need

If the Government will for a time at least turn its attention from showing the farmer how to produce crops to helping him to sell what he produces agriculture will soon be on as profitable basis as banking, merchandising or manufacturing. Farming is so scattered and so diversified that co-operative production and marketing are difficult—almost impossible—without some more effective national guidance than it has received in the past. With the same help that is rendered the railroads and the banks in keeping down competition, farming would in time again become the aristocratic business it once was.

Another Source of Revenue

There is a saying that "It isn't what one makes, but what he saves that counts." Resourceful San Saba folks recently have marketed two car loads of mussel shells gathered from the San Saba streams. They have been shipped to a button factory in St. Louis who will use them in making 'pearl" buttons of a kind sold in all the stores.

Responsibility of Leadership

The shepherd who would intentionally lead his sheep astray is unworthy. The captain who knowingly leads his sailors into the enemy's trap is a traitor. A political leader who would intentionally mislead his followers, or use them as an asset in promoting his personal profit, deserves their utter contempt.

THOUSANDS CANNOT TAKE ASPIRIN

The discovery a few years ago of a pain relief with exhaustive tests by thousands of physicians, dentists and nures proved it to be truly wonderful, was indeed a great blessing to sufferers of headaches, neuralgia, rheumatism, neuritis, period pains. Our Dear Old Globe Is Shrinking

When our old friend Magellan left Seville, Spain on that morning of September 8, 1522 in his good ship, he vowed to sail around the world. He did—and it took him just within a few days of three years. Just a Sunday ago, John Henry Mears and R. D. Collyer, stepped on to the tip of Manhattan Island—they, too, had circled the world—their time was 23 days 15 hours and 21 minutes. In 400 years this dear old globe shrunk to 1-50th of its former size. Even Jules Verne would turn over in his grave if he could hear this news—for no doubt the echos of the angry mob shouting "fool" still ring through the ether waves to him, for as yau recall men "Ho. Ho'd at his wild vision of 80 days around the world as made by this English man, Phineas Fogg in 1872.

In 1889 Nelly Bly set out to make a record. The trip was made in 72 days, 6 hours and 11 minutes.

In 1903 the time was reduced to 54 days, in 1911 to nearly 40 days; in 1913 to 36 days; in 1926 to 28 days. Now comes the 23 1-2 days.

Did You Ever Stop To Think

That hard times mean nothing to a hen?

She just keeps on digging worms and laying eggs,

Regardless of what newspapers say about conditions.

If the ground is hard, she scratches harder.

If it's dry she digs deeper.

If she strikes a rock she digs around it.

But always she digs up worms and turns them into hard shelled profit.

As well as tender broilers.

Did you ever see a pessimistic hen?

Did you ever know one starving to death, waiting for worms to dig themselves to the surface?

Did you ever hear one cackle because times were hard?

Not on your life.

She saves her breath for digging and her cackle for eggs.

W e are diggers—so are you.

T. J. Lawrence, Scout Executive for The Heart of Texas Area was a Cameron visitor Friday. The Scout interest is good in Cameron and Mr. Lawrence found good work being done in all the troops. The Court of Honor will be held in Cameron next Friday.

She: "I don't know what's the matter with that little man over there. He was so attentive and nice a few moments ago. Now he won't even look at me."

Second she: "Perhaps he saw me come in—he's my husband."

She slightly placed herself in the chair and submitted to the blindfolding. The committee stood about awaiting the great moment. With an air of confidence, the chief of laboratory tests lighted a cigarette and held it under the woman's nostrils. "Do you get it?" he asked. "Yes" she smiled. "Tell me then, what is it," "You can't fool me," she replied very sweetly "It's the paper hangers pipe."

Nice old lady: "Don't you know you shouldn't play strip poker"

A sweet young thing: "Oh, it's perfectly all right, it's not really gambling."

"No ,you see, we get our clothes back."

THE NEW FARMING ACCOUNT SCHOOL

The good business farmer today watches his farm accounts carefully in respect to his labor, his farm stock and his soil he knows what they can do and how they can be most profitably handled He knows the mathematics of growing feed from the soil pigs and poultry from the feed and cash profits from pigs and poultry He knows whether he is milking the cow for paying returns or the cow is milking him out of his invested capital Wherever his accounts show a deficit or insufficient profit on one or more items, he immediately studies to overcome the handicap and correct any mistakes that have been made

The Agricultural Commission of the American Bankers Association is conducting a nationwide educational campaign for better methods of farm accounting The commission has been stressing the wisdom of country bankers through cooperation of county agents, calling farmers together, and holding account schools where instruction is given on the use of the farm account books

Each person is led through the various steps in keeping accounts and each enters his own inventory which he has previously been instructed to take and bring to school This gives a good start and when properly followed up by letters and an occasional visit by the specialist in charge, greatly aids the man who is really in earnest to come through his first year of keeping accounts successfully Many times country banks offer the rooms for holding the account schools in some instances, an employe of the bank is designated to assist farmer patrons during the year in keeping their accounts.

HOW TO GO BROKE FARMING

1. Grow only one crop.
2. Keep no livestock
3. Regard chickens and a garden as nuisances.
4. Take everything from the soil and return nothing
5. Don't stop gullies or grow cover crops—let the top soil wash away, then you will have "bottom" land.
6. Don't plan your farm operations It's hard work thinking—trust to luck
7. Regard your woodland as you would a coal mine, cut every tree, sell the timber and wear the cleared land out cultivating it in corn.
8. Hold fast to the idea that the methods of farming employed by your grandfather are good enough for you.
9. Be independent—don't join with your neighbors in any form of co-operation.
10. Mortgage your farm for every dollar it will stand to buy things you would have the cash to buy if you followed a good system of farming.—Division of Extension, University of Tennessee.

Strong the Family Praise!

Miss Allen

Houston, Texas.—"I wish to say Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been a blessing to our family, especially in one daughter's case. She was in a serious condition with woman's weakness and just about going when we decided to try one more remedy we had heard of — the 'Favorite Prescription.' Well, a few bottles of this helped her so she has never had any more trouble of the kind. So it is no wonder that we have depended wholly upon this one remedy ever since for all such ailments."—Mrs. Emma Allen, 313 Hogan St.

Former Ferguson Followers Refuse to be Delivered

At Tyler, Texas, on the night of Thursday, August 9. 1928, an immense gathering of some 3500 people assembled on the lawn of the Smith County Court House to hear Tom Connally in a most spirited and eloquent campaign address. Several speakers preceded Mr. Connally in short addresses, among them the Honorable Walter Jones of Wood County. Mr. Jones has long been the personal and political friend of ex-Governor James E. Ferguson, and has followed him because he trusted him and believed he would not mislead his friends. On the occasion in question Mr. Jones said in part:

"I am one of the men who has always supported Jim Ferguson, and I have supported him out in the open; but I want to serve notice on Jim, tonight, that he can not deliver any part of the real Democrats of Texas, who have stayed with him, into the fold of Earle B. Mayfield. Jim is asking too much."

The sentiment of Mr. Jones, as above expressed, seems to be widely prevalent among the former followers of ex-Governor Jim Ferguson. Whatever Ferguson and Mayfield may have expected of Ferguson's power to lead his followers into the Mayfield camp, it is apparent that ex-Governor Jim can not deliver the goods. However loyal the followers of a political leader, they will not be herded into a fold, like so many sheep.

Who is Your Favorite Athlete

Who, in the realm of sport, appeals to your fancy,—Jack Dempsey, Babe Ruth, Bobby Jones, Helen Wills, Red Grange, or what have you? Most men can unhesitatingly make such a choice yet it is safe to say that in the vast majority of cases, the choice will not result from first hand comparisons, but rather will come from impressions gathered from news stories about the various stars.

When it comes to buying, too, the choice of people between competing lines is largely governed by what they have read in the newspapers—only in this instance, the advertising towns rule. How much you say about your product and how well and how often you say it, will largely determine its place in public esteem.

By the way, where is Trudy Ederle these days? Nothing in the newspapers about her, so people have almost forgotten her.

No matter how well known your business is today, don't stop advertising in the columns of The Cameron Herald. Always read the ads, in The Herald. You will find the better things, the things than can last, are shown and told of in the merchant ads.

Great-Great-Grandson Of "Old Tippecanoe"

Franklin, Ind.—Among those present at recent ceremonies held at the Masonic home here by Franklin Commandery No. 23, Knights Templar, was Benjamine Harrison, great-great-grandson of "Old Tippecanoe.—William Henry Harrison, ninth president of the United States. Benjamine Harrison is a member of the De Molay Commandery of Knights Templar of Indianapolis and a son of Russell Harrison also of Indianapolis, who is a son of Benjamine Harrison who served as president of the United States from 1889 to 1893 and was the only president ever elected from the state of Indiana to the highest office within the gift of the people.

William Henry Harrison, named by the Indians "Old Tippecanoe," became famous as the first governor of Indiana ,being appointed by President Adams in 1800; as a general during the war with the Indians he was in command of a company of 900 Federal troops at the battle of Tippecanoe.

The Harrison family bears the distinction of producing two Presidents of the United States—William Henry Harrison and Benjamine Harrison—an honor which has never been achieved by any other family in the history of the country.

THE WORLD'S BEST COAL

You Cant Fool People for 72 YEARS!

To adapt the old proverb to our purpose; you can fool some of the people all of the time, and all of the people some of the time—but you can't fool Southern people year after year for almost three-quarters of a century!

Which is just another way of saying that the constant growth, for seventy-two years, of preference for Original Genuine Montevallo Coal—first in the South since 1856—is proof positive that this really is "The World's Best Coal."

FIRST—Original Genuine Montevallo

When we say first we mean just that—the first coal mined in Alabama ever shipped by railroad—the first coal to become known and liked by name throughout the South. Our grandfathers burned it in their grates—and even then it was known as "The World's Best Coal," and it still is today.

Better—More Economical

This long burning, densely packed, carefully mine-inspected, impurity-free coal won leadership because it saved money and gave better satisfaction. You can actually save 25% on your fuel bill by using Montevallo Coal.

You can do more than that by ordering now when prices are way down. Save from 10 to 15% more. A cellar full of Original Genuine Montevallo Coal is a wonderful investment at any time—doubly so now.

Original Genuine MONTEVALLO Dealers Are Authorized

We carefully select our dealers. They are trustworthy firms, who will render you the service you have the right to expect in ordering the "World's Best Coal."

Order your Original Genuine Montevallo Coal from the nearest authorized dealer below. That's the ONLY way you can get Original Genuine Montevallo Coal, mined by the Montevallo Coal Mining Company, Aldrich, Alabama—and it pays to make sure you get this economical coal, not something "just as good."

Milk Products Plant Again Before Public

Attorney S. M. Burns is in receipt of a letter from F. H. Douthett, President of Douthett Engineering Company of Chicago, Illinois, advising that he is to be in Brady next Monday relative to the building of a plant there to manufacture cream, butter and powdered milk. Mr. Douthett has just recently finished the $150,000 milk plant at Marshall which opened a few weeks ago. Mr. Douthett is trying to arrange his trip so that he can visit Cameron while he is in Texas. A plant of this character would mean a ready market and a good price for all the sweet milk the farmers of Milam County could bring to Cameron.

Has Forty-Two Lodges With 20,501 Members

Cincinnati, Ohio—Masonry in this city and Hamilton county, constituting the first district of the Grand Lodge of Ohio, is in a very healthy condition, according to a summary of the official report made by the District Lecturer, Walter N. Yindsay, at the annual inspections.

The summary of the reports of the district show a total of forty-two lodges with a membership of 20,501. All the lodges in the district were found to be in uniformly good condition with the degree work very satisfactory throughout. The fraternal spirit prevailing was very marked. A number of new Masonic temples have been completed within the past year and there are many plans now under way for the building of others and the remodeling and improving of old temples to accommodate the growth of the various lodges.

Rev. Lathan, pastor of the Presbyterian church of La Grange and his wife stopped for a while in Cameron Thursday on their return from a summer vacation in North Carolina. Rev. Lathan is a cousin of Mrs. R. S. Porter, a former resident of Cameron.

OVERSEAS VETERAN BURIED AT BUSHDALE

MILAM COUNTY WAR SOLDIER DIES IN EL PASO HOSPITAL ON AUGUST FIRST

H. F. Abel Jr., age 32, a veteran of the World War, died in the Government Hospital at El Paso last Wednesday, following an illness of several years, during which time he had sought relief through the medium of high altitudes and dry climates.

The remains were shipped to Sharp, and the funeral was conducted Sunday afternoon from the home of his father-in-law, Henry Von Gonton, in the Sharp community. Interment was in the Bushdale cemetery, the Lutheran minister from Buckholts officiating and the remains were buried with military honors by Carlisle Post No. 358, American Legion of this city.

Abel, who was a native of Washington county, moved to Milam county shortly before the war and was one of the first men called to the colors by the draft of 1917. He went overseas as a member of Battery C, 16th Field Artillery and his discharge papers show that he was identified with the following engagements: Chery Chartrouse, August 6-17, 1918; St. Mihiel Salient, Sept. 2-16, 1918; Meuse-Argonne September 26 to Nov. 10, 1918; Toulin Sector, September 6-11, 1918.

After the Armistice he was in the Secret Service with the army of Occupation in Germany. While he was never wounded, he came out of the army with impaired health, his trouble developing about four years ago into tuberculosis.

He returned to Milam County and in October 1922 was married to Miss Annie Von Gonton who with two children survive him. He is also survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Abel of Brenham and several brothers.—Rockdale Reporter.

FORMER ROCKDALE MAN GETS HERO METAL

A. N. VITTRUP TO BE DECORATED FOR VALOR IN LINE OF DUTY

The following from a recent issue of the Dallas News will be of local interest, Mr. Vittrup being a former citizen of Rockdale and his wife a former Rockdale girl, being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Blackburn.

A. N. Vittrup, who was wounded in a pistol engagement with a highwayman, but who "got his man," wounding him and capturing him alive, will be publcily decorated in a ceremony to be held in a few days in the council chamber of the city hall.

Vittrup already has been promoted in recognition of his valorous service having been given the commission of sergeant by Police and Fire Commissioner Parker.

The official hero's medal will be pinned on the breast of his coat at the ceremonial where Vittrup is to be cited. The gift of the medals is provided for under city ordinance and several already have been issued.

It is possible, according to Commissioner Parker that more than one man will be decorated at the ceremony, that Capt. Leonard Pack and his partner, Wayter Hanson, will also be given medals in recognition of their service in capturing the Black Terrors, who terrorized a large section of Dallas county with robbery, murder and assault on white women several years ago.

Vittrup was at home off duty July 16 when he was informed that a robbery was in progress a short distance from his home. He armed himself and in his overalls he ran to the scene at Beacon and Lindsley. He called to the robber to give up, but the latter opened fire, wounding Vittrup in the arm. Not daunted, Vittrup returned the fire and a number of shots were exchanged. When the short battle ended the robber had fallen badly wounded.—Rockdale Reporter.

Meeting of County Board Of Education

The next regular meeting of the County Board of Education of Milam County will be held on Monday, Aug. 27th, instead of at the regular meeting date September 3rd. The change is proposed because some of the schools of the county will open on the first Monday in September and some urgent matters must be attended to before the schools open. Any persons having business to present to this body will please note that the meeting will be held on the above date mentioned.

W. A. Morrison, chairman of the Board, has called the meeting for the purpose of making emergency transfers for high school advantages, making the county apportionment and for the purpose of transacting such business as may come up for attention at that time.

Very truly yours,
Mrs. Kathryn K. Robbins,

Hiram W. Evans is the Imperial Wizard of the Ku Klux Klan. He came to Texas during the campaign of 1924, and exerted his influence in behalf of Felix D. Robertson, the Klan candidate for governor. In 1922, the Klan concentrated its forces on Earle B. Mayfield, the acknowledged Klan candidate and he was nominated for the United States Senate. It may be safely assumed that Hiram Evans is exerting his influence for Mayfield in the present campaign. Of all those who have inveterately and persistently assailed the Klan and Earle Mayfield, ex-Governor Jim Ferguson has been the most intolerant of the one and the most abusive of the other. It appears now, however, that, in behalf of Mayfield, Jim is trying to lead his followers into the Ku Klux camp. Solomon said, "There is no new thing under the sun;" but, verily there are new and strange developments in Texas politics.

Jim, Earle and Hiram. If they are now regarded as three of a kind, which of them will first resent the suggestion? Regardless of this, do not Jim, the Klan antagonist, and Hiram, the Klan Wizard, present a queer pair for Earle to draw to?

IT was in August, ninety-nine years ago, that the first practical steam locomotive in America moved over a permanent railroad track. But its three-mile trial trip was its last—because its weight of seven tons was too great for the company's wooden trestles.

ROCKDALE MAY GET NEW MODERN HOTEL

HOTEL SYNDICATE INTERESTED IN BRINGING HOTEL. CONFERENCE IS HELD

T. E. Smith of the Smith Hotel System, with present headquarters at Georgetown was in Rockdale last Thursday investigating the possibility of his company entering this city for the purpose of erecting and operating a modern hotel.

Mayor Gaither hastily called a few citizens into conference with M.. Smith that evening and a discussion of the Smith Hotel System plan of operation wa sheld.

At the present time the Smith interests are promoting a new hotel at Georgetown with the contract practically closed and ultimate completion of the project assured. Taylor is also interested and the Chamber of Commerce of that city is now engaged in the preliminary work looking to tieing up with the Smith System.

Mr. Smith stated that he had had his eye on Rockdale as a good location for a hotel for several years. He has been watching the progress of Highways 43 and 44 which cross here and says this city is the logical location for the erection of a good hotel to take care of tourists and motorized commercial traffic.

The Smith Hotel System has several plans for financing these hotels. These plans were explained by Mr. Smith Thursday evening and it is possible that the conference may result in something tangible towards giving this city its present crying need—a modern hotel.—Rockdale Reporter.

PAUL CARRIES THE GOSPEL INTO EUROPE

LESSON TEXT—Acts 15:36-16:15

GOLDEN TEXT—Come over into Macedonia and help us.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Paul's Wonderful Dream.

JUNIOR TOPIC—God Calls Paul to Work in Europe.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Pioneering in Europe.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Paul's Call to Europe.

I. Finding an Assistant for Paul (Acts 15:35-16:5).

1. Contention over John Mark (vv. 36-41).

(1) Paul's proposal (v. 36).

This was to revisit the scenes of their missionary endeavors to find out what progress the believers were making in their Christian experience.

(2) Determination of Barnabas (v. 37).

It was to take with them John Mark Barnabas' nephew (Col. 4:10).

(3) Paul's opposition (v. 38).

He was suspicious of Mark because of his desertion on a former journey (Acts 13:13).

(4) Their separation (vv. 39-41).

Their contention was so sharp that they separated. God overruled this incident to the wider extension of the work. Barnabas took Mark and sailed to Cyprus; Paul chose Silas, and went through Syria and Cilicia.

2. Finding Timothy (16:1-5).

(1) The place (v. 1).

It was the very place where Paul on his first journey had endured cruel stoning. The conversion of Timothy may be regarded as fruitage of Paul's testimony at that time.

(2) His parentage (v. 1).

His mother was a believing Jewess and his father a Greek.

(3) His character (v. 2).

He had a good reputation in the church at Lystra and Iconium.

(4) His circumcision (v. 3).

Timothy had not been circumcised. Doubtless this omission was because his father was a Gentile. To avoid offense among the Jews, Paul circumcised Timothy.

(5) The ministry of Paul and Timothy through the cities (vv. 4, 5).

They delivered decrees which had been ordained at the Jerusalem council (Acts 15:19-24).

II. Forbidden to Preach the Word in Asia (Acts 16:6-8).

The inclination of Paul was to tarry in Asia Minor preaching the Word, but contrary to their inclination they were hurried along. The Holy Spirit is just as active and faithful in closing doors as in opening them.

III. The Call to Macedonia (vv. 9-12.)

The time had now come for the gospel to begin its conquest of another continent. By the crossing of the gospel from Asia to Europe the church instead of becoming an oriental movement, became mainly occidental.

1. The vision (v. 9).

Being hemmed in on all sides, a vision was given to Paul of a man of Macedonia pleading for help, which made clear the meaning of the closed doors about him.

2. The advance (vv. 10-12).

As soon as the divine way was known they moved forward. Visions, to be effective, must be quickly translated into aggressive action.

IV. The First Convert in Europe (vv. 13-15).

The Jewish element in Philippi was so small that it was unable to afford a synagogue, therefore the devout people were accustomed to worship by the riverside. To a humble gathering of this kind Paul came and preached. Lydia, a business woman from Thyatira, believed. The steps in her conversion are worthy of note, as typical.

1. Attendance at the place of worship (v. 13).

Usually those whom God is calling are found at the place of prayer.

2. Listening to the preaching of the Word of God (vv. 13, 14).

Faith cometh by hearing and hearing by the Word of God (Rom. 10:17).

3. Her heart was opened by the Lord (v. 14).

Only the Lord can convert a soul. It is our business to preach the Word of God, and it is God's business to open the heart of the inquirer. Regeneration is a supernatural work.

4. She was baptized (v. 15).

Every one whose heart the Lord has opened desires to confess Him in baptism.

5. Her household believed (v. 15).

6. Hospitality practiced (v. 15).

Those who have experienced God's saving grace are disposed to have part in His work by rendering aid to His ministers.

Nowhere Else to Go

I have been driven many times to my knees by the overwhelming conviction that I had nowhere else to go. My own wisdom, and that of all about me seemed insufficient for that day.—Abraham Lincoln.

ROOM 428

Senator Mayfield seems to resent the suggestion that he and ex-Governor James E. Ferguson visited room No. 428 at the Stephen F. Austin Hotel in the city of Austin on July 31st, the week next succeeding the July primary. He states that since he left Washington he has met Ferguson only once, and that their meeting was in the lobby of the Rice Hotel during the Houston Convention. No one has charged that Mayfield and Ferguson visited room 428 together. The fact is that a representative of the Louisiana Power Company had the room rented, and during the day of July 31st, Mayfield visited the room, and during the same day though perhaps at a different time, James E. Ferguson visited the room. Mayfield does not deny that he visited room No. 428 at the Austin Hotel during the day of July 31st nor has Jim Ferguson denied that during that day he visited this room. It appears they did not visit this room together. If there were any negotiations between them they appear to have been carried through an intermediary, the representative of the Louisiana Power Company. Perhaps it was not necessary or intended that negotiations, if any, between Ferguson and Mayfield, whether through an intermediary or otherwise, should be known but somebody "let the cat out of the bag," and somebody "carried the news to Mary."

Manufacturer Offers 2240 Varied Types Of Commercial Cars

Introduction of the new line of six cylinder Graham Brothers trucks and motor coaches, featuring four wheel brakes and four speed transmissions, has made it possible for the company to build 2240 different types of trucks in the plants at Detroit, Evansville, Indiana and Stockton, California according to surveys just completed.

This figure is reached by combining the forty-seven different chassis types available with forty-eight different styles of bodies then varying equipment, type of wheels, gear ratios size of tires, etc. on the five capacities in which the trucks are built. The company's new line includes the Merchants Express Commercial Truck, 1 1-4, 1 3-4 and 2 1-2 ton capacities. In addition to these standardized combinations, the company's special equipment division handles demands for motor truck and coach bodies falling outside the regular listings.

Every unit built is subjected to rigid road tests where operating defects can be checked and corrected before the truck is ready for shipment. With August production at top peak, the task of inspection on the assembly line and on the track keeps ninety-six inspectors busy at the Detroit plant alone.

Unlike passenger car assembly, the truck assembly line seldom has two units of the same kind together, a recent survey showing 35 different types coming off the line in less than two hours.

"Figures like this explain why we are able to meet the transportation demands of practically every business, said Howard E. Sneathen, director of commercial car and truck sales of Dodge Brothers Corporation. "Production must take into consideration the complicated requirements of motor transport and nothing has been overlooked to furnish dependable, economical and speedy transportation to every business.'

Pure friendship is something man of inferior intellect can never taste.

A dog changes his whole expression by moving his ears—a man by removing his collar.

One smart way to increase the price of corn would be to make corn fed fashionable again.

Lord Byron once said: "Like the measles, love is most dangerous when it comes late in life."

Some men are known by the bacteria they keep.

Flanders field, the battle grounds of Europe, is a land of perpetual peace compared with the human system as a thing of continuous conflict.

Science says that genus homo has countless enemies constantly seeking his destruction. Also science says, legitimately man should live forever. It's all a matter of bacilli.

Surely every one of you have heard about the poor fellow who married a screen star thinking he was now in the height of his glory and ambition and as the story continues, they separated after a few weeks because she couldn't love him properly without a director being present.

Ancient Winecask:—Probably the only barrel in the world that is honored with a birthday party is celebrated Heidelberg tun in Germany, a huge wine cask now 475 years old. It is 36 feet long and 24 feet high and holds more than 50,000 gallons. It rests in a cellar under Heidelberg Castle and is the central figure of a jubilee celebrated each year. I am wondering what they would use the big cask for if prohibition went into effect in Germany.

Back to dear old Cicero ,we find he said, "You must therefore love me, myself and not my circumstances if we are to be real friends" and in the words of Lord Bacon. 'All things are admired either because they are new or because they are great."

TAXES

Under the present system of taxation the farm is bearing an unjust share of the taxes. The farmers' property is all exposed to view. The assessor does not miss a thing, but the farmer can sell out and move to town and in six months can convert his capital into tax free stuff. If the politicians were really interested in farm relief, they would devise some means of lifting the burden of tax from the farms and distributing it among those in possessionof nonproductivewealth. The best method and the most equitable method is the sales tax. The gas tax in Kansas raises six million dollars a year and the cigarette tax a half million. The gas tax is used for roads and the burden lifted from the landowner to that extent. The system should be carried further and a sales tax placed in other articles. If the money raised in this way were apportioned to the schools of the state, the local tax for this purpose could be reduced accordingly. Under the present system a man who earns $2000 a year and spends it all, does not pay anywhere near his share of the taxes as compared with a man on the farm. The man in town who earns $2000 a year and invests it in a home is taxed every year as long as he lives, as a penalty for his thrift. What the country needs is a method of taxing the spender, not the community builder and the sales tax is the simplest and most effectively plan.
